What’s Wrong With This Picture?

This month’s risk reminder is a contest between contractors. This is a photograph of a recently visited site. The ladder is being used by a carpenter contractor to access work within the trusses and to install roof sheeting.

What OSHA regulations have been violated?
What is the proper method of abatement?